3. TEACHING AND LEARNING METHODS

Modules shall be taught over 10 weeks and shall include 3 hours of contact per week, involve 6 hours of self-study per week and 9 hours of other learning activities per week for each semester. The 30 hours of contact shall include class hours, tutorials and practicals.

Students will be required to attend lectures, read prescribed texts, use audio-visual material as well as new technologies and multimedia tools. Coaching and small group tutorials will help them identify their strengths and weaknesses. They will develop personal communication and interaction skills during group work/projects, discussions, debates, and class presentations. To develop transferable and generic skills, students will be assigned practical tasks alone or in groups. They will participate in research-based activities and be involved in document analysis and bibliographical research. They will be invited to attend seminars/round tables/conferences. They will conduct field work, carry out case studies and participate in culturally creative tasks. For some modules, study visits and tours will be proposed.

4. ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

OR alternative qualifications acceptable to the University of Mauritius.

5. PROGRAMME DURATION – F/T

	Normal (Years)	Maximum (Years)
UoM Degree	3	5

6. MINIMUM LCCS CREDITS REQUIRED

- For Degree Award: 216.

The distribution of LCCS credits per semester and per year for modules for the BA (Hons) French Studies programme is indicated in the table below.

Module Type	Year 1	Year 2	Year 3	TOTAL LCCS Credits
Literature modules	42	36	24	102
Language Studies module	36	42	24	102
Research Project			12	12
TOTAL/year	78	78	60	216

- Exit points

A student may exit with a Certificate or a Diploma award provided s/he satisfies the minimum requirements as given hereunder. The request for exit should be made in writing to the Dean of Faculty using the proper channel, through Head of Department through Programme Coordinator.

- Minimum Requirements for exit with a Certificate – 60 LCCS credits
- Minimum Requirements for exit with a Diploma – 120 LCCS credits

7. ASSESSMENT AND DEADLINES

- Continuous Assessment: 40% - 100%
- Examinations: 0% - 60%

- WRITTEN EXAMINATION

Written examination at the end of each academic year will be held as per university calendar. For UoM, written examination will be of 2 to 3-hour duration (normally a 2-hour paper for modules carrying less than or equal to 6 LCCS credits, and a 3-hour paper for modules carrying 12 LCCS credits). Examination duration for modules assessed by more than 40% continuous assessment may differ from the above. Relevant information will be provided to students prior to the delivery of modules. Maximum score for each module is 100 marks.

- CONTINUOUS ASSESSMENT

Continuous assessment is compulsory for all modules. Students will be assessed during the teaching and learning process through various oral presentations, projects, portfolio, written assignments, seminar attendance, case study and field work. Continuous assessment will be in a range of 40-100% of the overall percentage mark of the module except for other specific provision(s). Assessment may be based only on 100% continuous assessment during both semesters.

Special examinations (e.g. class tests) will be arranged for students who have registered only for one semester and who are duly registered on an Exchange programme. LCCS credits may be assigned on a pro-rata basis.

An overall total of 40% for combined continuous assessment and written examination components would be required to pass a module, without minimum thresholds within the individual continuous assessment and written examination, except if stated otherwise. The same criterion will apply for modules being assessed jointly. Overall marks will be considered and not the individual marks.

At the end of Year 1, students will be informed about their strengths and weaknesses. They may be required to enroll on additional language stand-alone modules in French.

Records of activities: Records of activities are compulsory and shall be maintained by the academic staff for all types of continuous assessment included in the modules. A monitoring system will be designed by the lecturers in order to keep track of all student assignments (for adequate moderation). Records of attendance and assignments (written, audio- and/or video-recorded, or any other form) shall be submitted by the lecturer to the Administrative Officer of the Examination Section of the Faculty/Centre not later than one week after the end of each semester or year. Students should also keep a portfolio of all coursework and same should be made available upon request, to the Faculty/Centre Examination Office. In case students fail to submit the Portfolio to the Faculty/Centre Examination Office, a penalty of 10% on all continuous assessment marks obtained shall apply.
