

BSc (Hons) Marketing Management (F/T)- LM322

1. Objectives

The evolution of contemporary business has resulted in a new marketing perspective to address consumer needs and demands. This new programme will prepare the students as marketers for leadership roles within their field of specialisation whether they wish to work as consultants for a marketing firm, enter into brand management or any other marketing function. Moreover, students will be also trained in critical marketing concepts and how to employ these marketing strategies for greater sustainable competitive advantage. In this respect, this enriching course provides an opportunity to develop both skills and specialist knowledge of use in starting a marketing career. A variety of teaching methods give the students experience of the situations they are likely to meet in marketing roles. The overall approach is geared to producing motivated, independent learners, who can tackle a wide variety of marketing problems.

The programme will thus increase and broaden the skills base of students and enhance their ability to think laterally, research, problem-solve, be proactive, apply new ideas, think strategically and increase their marketing competence. Therefore, the objectives of the Marketing Management Programme are to:

- impart a solid foundation in the application of fresh marketing strategies and cutting-edge marketing concepts that will help the business enterprise in achieving a customer centric business model
- prepare students to fulfill managerial roles in the marketing department
- foster the spirit of flexibility, creativity, entrepreneurship, innovation and ethical practices required to address the marketing challenges presented by a rapidly changing business environment
