

BSc (Hons) Human Resource Management - LM321

1. Objectives

The field of Human Resource Management is increasingly considered, in a context of fierce international competition and fast-changing business conditions, to be one of the critical areas of management. Putting people into the right jobs, ensuring their proper training, motivation and development, and monitoring and improving their performance, all directly enhance the efficiency and effectiveness of organisations. This programme aims at introducing students to the basic functions of human resource management, examining the concepts and theories of successful HRM, demonstrating the strategic link between HRM and other functional areas as well as the corporate strategy, and at developing the knowledge base and analytical skills of students with a view to preparing them to be key contributors to organisational success.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of the programme, students will be expected to:

- (i) understand the concepts and theories of management with specific emphasis on Human Resource Management;
- (ii) develop knowledge and skill in all functional areas of HRM (recruitment, selection, training, performance management, etc.);
- (iii) develop analytical and problem-solving skills;
- (iv) develop appropriate interpersonal skills in line with the values and roles of HRM professionals; and
- (v) develop a sensitive appreciation of the internal and external organisational context within which HRM is to operate.

8. Assessment

Each module will be assessed over 100 marks (i.e. expressed as %) with details as follows (unless otherwise specified):

Assessment will be based on written examination (of 2 to 3-hour duration, as specified) and continuous assessment carrying a range of 10% to 30% of total marks.

Continuous assessment may be based on laboratory work and/or assignments and should include at least one class test.

For all modules taught in semester 1, there will be a compulsory class test at the end of semester 1 of the given academic year unless stated otherwise in the Programme Structure. This is applicable to modules examined at the end of the academic year.

For a student to pass a module, a minimum of 30% should be attained in both of Continuous Assessment and Written Examination separately, with an overall total of a minimum of 40% in that module.

Written examinations for all modules, whether taught in semester 1 or in semester 2 or both, will be carried out at the end of the academic year (unless otherwise stated).

Many modules in the structure are yearly modules, which are taught over a period of two semesters and examined at the end of the second semester only. There are continuous assessments over the period of two semesters and the written examination will be of a duration of 3 hours for a yearly module of 6 credits.

Work Placement and HR Project is assessed through:

- (a) An Initial Report for each placement period, detailing objectives to be achieved and proposed HR focus, earning a total of 3 credits after all placements have taken place successfully. The Initial Report is worked out in consultation with the site supervisor and approved by him/her before the placement begins;
- (b) An applied HR Project report at the end of the programme, detailing the process and content of the work placement experience and outcomes, earning a total of 3 credits. It is expected that work placement process and content will be focused on mutually-beneficial HR projects and issues arising in the placement organisation.

9. Termination of Registration

If the CPA of a student is < 40 at the end of an academic year, s/he will have to repeat the entire academic year, and retake modules as and when offered. However, s/he will not be required, if s/he wishes, to retake module(s) for which Grade C or above has been obtained.

Students will be allowed to repeat only once over the entire duration of the Programme of Studies.

Registration of a student will be terminated if

- (i) the CPA < 40 at the end of an academic year and the student has already repeated one year of study;
- (ii) or the maximum duration allowed for completion of the Programme of Studies has been exceeded.

Modules carrying asterisk(s):

* These are 3-credit modules, which will be run and examined at the end of the first semester.

These are 3-credit modules, which will be run and examined at the end of the second semester.

All 3-credit modules are run over 15 weeks and examinations are scheduled at the end of the semester in which the module is run.

1) Students will have to complete two (2) General Education Modules (GEMs) over the 3 years of Programme of Studies. List of GEMs will be posted on Faculty Notice Boards at the start of every semester.

2) Work Placement and HR Project will earn a total of 6 credits. Students have to complete a total of three (3) months placement in a public or private organisation and submit an Initial Report of project(s) to be undertaken for each placement, with an HR focus, in consultation with the site supervisor/contact person. Examples of projects are: problem-based investigations, troubleshooting, qualitative or quantitative studies, involvement in new project development, management shadowing, involvement in Organisation Development interventions, and so on. Using these practical training experiences, students will compile a final Applied HR Project Report to be submitted at the end of the programme. All reports will be assessed on set criteria. The work placement may be spread over the entire duration of the programme, provided the University and the Site supervisors approve the Initial Reports of the student for each placement site.
