CHAPTER 15

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE TO STUDENTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS/ PRIZES

The University reserves the right not to offer any of the Schemes/ Scholarships/ Prizes in case of non-availability of funds.

Note that Scholarships may be either one-off or renewable each academic year subject to conditions specified by each Donor.

15.1 ASSISTANCE TO NEEDY STUDENTS

Students may avail themselves of the facilities of the various Schemes existing at the University namely:

(i) The University of Mauritius Students Financial Assistance Fund

This Scheme is open to:

- Students who are enrolled on full-time non-tuition fee-paying undergraduate Programmes at the University and who are not beneficiary of any grant, scholarship or financial assistance, excluding Cash Prize.
- Students whose parents are recipients of social security benefits.
- Students from low-income families whose monthly household income, including any social benefits, should preferably not exceed Rs37,000/- per month. Students whose family income exceeds Rs37,000/- per month may be exceptionally considered on a case to case basis.
- Students in unexpected personal difficulties.

The financial assistance under The University of Mauritius Students Financial Assistance Fund will cover the Administrative Fee of Rs 10,000/- or part of it.

The following conditions are attached to the grant of the financial assistance:

(a) satisfactory performance of the student during his/her studies.
(b) the student does not withdraw from his/her Programme of Study.
(c) in the event that the student withdraws from or change his/her Programme of Study or his/her registration is terminated, s/he should immediately inform the Student Welfare Office (SWO).
(d) the student will have to submit a copy of his/her examination results for the current Academic Year, to SWO.

Students who wish to be considered for the above Scheme, should submit their application at the time of the call for application (normally, around July of each year) to the Student Welfare Office, 7th Floor, Academic Complex Tower Block, University of Mauritius, Réduit, together with all the necessary documentary evidence.

Students should apply to same on a yearly basis.

A Committee, comprising of representatives of the Registrar's Office, the Faculty of Social Sciences & Humanities, the Finance Section and the Students' Union, will consider all the requests and make appropriate recommendations.

(ii) The Soomunth Balgobin and Maya Luchman Balgobin Trust Scholarship

The Soomunth Balgobin and Maya Luchman Balgobin (SBMLB) Trust provides financial assistance to about three (3) deserving and needy students who have obtained admission on full-time Undergraduate Degree Programmes at the University of Mauritius. The amount proposed per student is Rs 2,000/- per month and will be allocated for the duration of the Programme not exceeding four years.

Applicants should satisfy the following conditions:
