

Seeking a Spice Sleuth: Quality Officer Wanted!

Do you have a keen eye for detail and a passion for ensuring quality? Are you excited about the world of spices and the meticulous processes that bring them from farm to table? If so, then we want to hear from you!

Exquisite Spices Ltd, a leading manufacturer of high-quality spices, is seeking a dedicated and detail-oriented Quality Officer to join our growing team. In this role, you will play a critical role in maintaining and upholding our quality standards, ensuring that our customers receive only the finest and safest products.

What you'll do:

- Develop, implement, and monitor quality control procedures throughout the entire production process, from raw material inspection to finished product packaging.
- Conduct thorough inspections of incoming ingredients and finished products, ensuring they meet all quality specifications and regulatory requirements.
- Analyze product samples using various testing methods to identify and address any potential quality issues.
- Maintain accurate and detailed records of all quality control activities and findings.
- Collaborate with other departments, such as production and purchasing, to ensure consistent quality standards are met across the organization.
- Stay up-to-date on industry best practices and regulatory changes related to food safety and quality control.

What we're looking for:

- Bachelor degree and professional certificate in Quality Management/Food Safety and/or relevant equivalent qualification.
- Minimum of 1 year of experience in a quality control role, preferably within the food and beverage industry.
- Strong understanding of quality control principles and methodologies, including HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points).
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills, with the ability to identify and troubleshoot quality issues efficiently.
- Meticulous attention to detail and a commitment to maintaining the highest quality standards.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to work effectively with colleagues across different departments.
- Proficient in Microsoft Office, with a willingness to learn and adapt to new technologies.

What we offer:

- Competitive salary and benefits package
- Opportunity to work in a fast-paced and dynamic environment
- Be part of a passionate team dedicated to delivering high-quality products
- Make a real impact on the safety and satisfaction of our customers
- Continuous learning and development opportunities

Are you ready to embark on a flavorful career journey? If you are a highly motivated and detail-oriented individual with a passion for quality, we encourage you to apply!
