

THE MAURITIAN ACADEMIC DIASPORA

Issue No 2
Newsletter
December 2019

Dr Anu Bissoonauth-Bedford (Faculty of Law, Humanities & the Arts, University of Wollongong, Australia; email: anu@uow.edu.au) published a special edition titled 'Hand in Hand? La Main dans la Main? Lame dan Lame?' in collaboration with Associate Professor Kumari Issur (Dept of French Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences & Humanities, University of Mauritius) in March 2019 (<https://ro.uow.edu.au/mauritius50/>). This publication is a direct outcome of scholarly collaboration following the successful ICMAD conference in February 2018. Latest Publication and scholarly activities include:

Bissoonauth, A. (2019) 'Language and attitude shift of young Mauritians in secondary education' in the Journal of Multilingual and Multicultural Development

<https://www.tandfonline.com/eprint/PZIJ2KEPHXPOGBTB8EWZB/full?target=10.1080/01434632.2019.1677675>

With a $54,000 New Columbo Plan (NCP) mobility grant from the Australian Government, Anu was in New Caledonia (16 November-2 December 2019) with her students majoring in Humanities & Sciences with French for an accredited language and interdisciplinary research in the Pacific course designed in collaboration with colleagues at the University of New Caledonia (UNC).

Professor Emeritus Eileen Lohka (School of Languages, Linguistics, Literatures and Cultures, University of Calgary, Canada; courriel: elohka@ucalgary.ca).

As you may remember, Eileen retired last year. Although she is enjoying her retirement, she has nonetheless been active on several fronts: acting as reviewer for various academic journals as well as a literary manuscript for a Canadian Francophone publisher, and been a member in the PhD jury at the University of Tours in December 2018.

In addition, she translated 2 of her own French entries into English for the Dictionnaire JMG Le Clézio (Association des Lecteurs de JMG Le Clézio) and is now working on the 3rd (les oiseaux de Maurice, in Le Clézio's writing). We bet she will be even busier next year!

Professor Vikass Monebhurrun (Dept of Electromagnetics, CentraleSupélec, France; email: vikass.monebhurrun@centralesupelec.fr)

Congratulations to Vikass who is recipient of the IEEE Standards Association (IEEE-SA) International Award 2019 "For significant contributions to the development of international standards related to the fields of antennas and propagation". This award is presented annually to an IEEE-SA individual member who has made an extraordinary contribution to establishing the IEEE-SA as a world-class leader in standardization (<https://standards.ieee.org/about/awards/intl/index.html>). The Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers (IEEE, <https://www.ieee.org>) is the world's largest technical professional organization for the advancement of technology. The IEEE-SA International Award was presented during a ceremony on 8th November 2019 at the Hyatt New Brunswick, New Jersey, USA.

Professor Kian Fan CHUNG (Respiratory Medicine, Imperial College London; email: f.chung@imperial.ac.uk).

Many Congratulations to Fan who is now in the top 0.01% of scientists! This ranking was based on research impact using a metrics that captures not only total citations and h-index, but also co-authorship adjusted impact, and information on impact in papers according to different author positions (single, first, last author).

The metrics have been published by Professor Ioannidis at Stanford University. Fan is globally classified as 1,047th from the field of 100,000 scientists that were looked at.

Very well done Fan!
