9. Outline Syllabus

HIST 6000 - DISSERTATION

The dissertation will consist of an extended research survey of 30 000 words, to be submitted as per plan at no 10 as a compulsory requirement for completion of the programme. A dissertation supervisor will be identified by the programme coordinator and the title of the project approved by the Department of History and Political Science.

HIST 6001 Research Seminar

This will consist of monthly or bi-monthly seminars (depending on number of students registered) of minimum three hour duration led by the student and supervisor on a topic under research or related to the research by the student. Scholars and researchers outside the Department with an academic interest will be invited to participate. The student will make a presentation of his/her proposed research topic for dissertation and provide complete justification, literature review and be open to scrutiny by participants. The aim is to critically assess the research topic and solicit views and thoughts which may contribute to enhancing the research methodology, approaches and analytical perspectives of the student. A minimum of 12 research seminars will be planned in a twelve month period.
